NEWS GLEANED FROM THE CITY
JUST ACROSS THE BRIDGE.

Another Entertainment in Leader Hall.
Death of Miss Wicker—Little Business in the Courts—Persons'.

MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES,
123 BULL STREET, BEATTIE BLOCK.

The second of the series of musicals given in Leader Hall on Wednesday night was well attended. The programme, which consisted of both vocal and instrumental music, was well rendered. The singing of Miss Edna Robinson was excellent. Mr. Ernest H. Weisiger rendered two solos, which were heartily enjoyed by the entire audience. The instrumental music, which comprised selections on mandolins, guitars, and violins, was well rendered by an orchestra composed entirely of ladies from Richmond. Miss Nina Owen came in a very charming manner, and came in for a share of applause. The pantomime, "Art Will Have No Rival," was well received, as was also the moving tableau.

The Mayor had no cases for his consideration yesterday.

The Hunting Court was engaged yesterday in the chancery case of W. F. Rollin against J. Q. Dickerson and F. H. Patch.

Miss Lucy Frances Wicker died at the residence of her father, Mr. E. D. Wicker, in Swansboro, Wednesday night at 10 o'clock. Miss Wicker had been ill health for several months, and her death, though not unexpected, was a deep blow to the affected family. She was in the twenty-third year of her age, and was a young lady highly respected by a large circle of friends. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Clepton-Street Baptist church, and the services will be conducted by Rev. E. T. Dadman. The interment will be made in Maury cemetery.

Mr. William N. Brougham, of the University of Virginia, was in the city Wednesday afternoon visiting his father, Mr. J. W. Brougham, Sr. Mr. Brougham is now studying medicine at the University, and is one of the bassos in the University Glee Club.

Mr. Harry Purdie, formerly of this city, but now of Richmond, who has been away for a month, is still confined to his home.

Mrs. Mary E. Cox, who has been visiting her uncle, General Thomas M. Logan, at his country home in Albemarle county, has returned home.

Mrs. Edgar Warfield, of Alexandria, who has been visiting relatives in this city and Richmond, returned home yesterday, accompanied by her niece, Mrs. William G. Owens.

Mr. Floyd Traylor, of this city, left on Tuesday for an extended southern trip. The Hunting Court will adjourn for the term to-day.

Mrs. Arrington, of Warrenton, North Carolina, is visiting her son, Mr. John W. Arrington, on Cowardin avenue.

For the Land of Flowers.

The board of managers of the Retreat for the Sick, who recently considered the advisability of arranging for an excursion to the Mardi Gras in New Orleans, have decided to abandon this plan, owing to the fact that the time for completing the preparations is very limited. The board, however, do not despair of arranging for an excursion to Florida instead. This will be a splendid opportunity for those wishing to make a visit to the Land of Flowers, and all the arrangements in the way of comfort, escorts, and the like, will be provided for by the board. The trip will be a delightful affair, fifteen days in length. Five days of this time will be spent at the famous Ponce de Leon Hotel.

Further particulars of the trip can be learned upon application at the Retreat.

Grabbed the Watch.

On Wednesday night about 8:30 o'clock Mr. A. C. Rockecharlie, while returning home from his jewelry stores on Main street, came very near being robbed of his watch.

Mr. Rockecharlie, who has only one leg, while on Marshall street, between Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth, was asked by a negro to tell him the time. Mr. Rockecharlie took his watch from his pocket and while he was opening the case he was attacked by the negro, who grabbed at the watch.

Mr. Rockecharlie struck at the negro with his cane. The noise attracted the attention of several men standing near. They gave chase to the negro, but he was too fleet-footed and made his escape.

Two Small Fires.

There was a still alarm of fire turned in yesterday about 1 o'clock from Mr. Wormley's tobacco factory, at Twenty-first and Cary streets. The damage was trifling. No 2 Engine Company responded, and when the water was turned on Mr. Mercer Ball, who was holding the nozzle, let it get away from him, and he was knocked down and his right arm quite badly cut and bruised. Dr. Hinckman was summoned and dressed the wounds.

At 12:30 o'clock there was an alarm from box 33, corner of Church and Rowe streets, caused by a slight fire in the roof of frame house on Rowe street. Damage trifling.

To Move the Sun.

The Virginia Sun newspaper will move its office to Alexandria, Va., on the 14th of this month, where in the future the paper will be published. There will be no change in the name. The National Watchman Company, No. 419 Cameron street, will print the paper. The Watchman Company made an excellent offer to the Sun for their removal to that city. A branch office will be continued in this city.

Henrico Court.

The Henrico Court was in session yesterday, with Judge Welford presiding. Only routine business was transacted.

Beverly P. Crump, a white man from New Kent county, was brought to the Henrico jail Wednesday evening by Sheriff W. F. Woodward, of New Kent county. Justice Tyler gave Joseph Alford six months in default of $100 security, for disorderly conduct.

The persistent cough which usually follows an attack of the grippe can be permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. W. A. McEntire, of McKay, Ohio, says: "La grippe left me with a severe cough. After using several different remedies without effect, I tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which effected a permanent cure. I have since found it to be without an equal for children, when troubled with colds or croup, & 25 cent bottles for sale by Owens & Minor Drug Co., P. M. Slaughter, E. P. Reeves & Co., and H. G. Forstmann, druggists.

To Conservative Investors.

The United Banking and Building Company, 82 East Main street, offers for sale a limited number of the shares of its stock, fully paid and non-assessable, at $50 per share. The company pays on the cost of this stock a cash dividend of 6 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the 1st days of January and July of each year. The stock further participates in the profits of the business, and is reduced by 10 per cent on the date of payment, which is estimated to be about eighty-four months at $100 per share, reducing the cash interest already paid the holder thereof. This company is a well-managed institution, and we commend its shares to the investing public.

At Last a Cure!

for Sick Headache is found that is pleasant, harmless, and efficient. We refer to Dr. David's Pills, that thousands of our people have successfully used. Price, 25 cents a box; five boxes for a $1.
